

Aikiyam School Appeal

The school needs your help to enable it to continue to provide education to more than 225 children from underprivileged backgrounds living in villages around Auroville. We rely on donations for the majority of our income to cover expenses such as teacher wages, to offer each child a balanced, daily nutrition program, and to provide a wide variety of sports education, just to name a few areas. Our aim in this appeal is to reach people who are ready, willing and able to help the children on a regular basis, or by giving a one-time donation. Please put a check-mark in the box, and write the amount.

- I would like to contribute to the children's nutrition program _____

New donation gateway

We're well into the new school year and continue to be amazed with the children, and with how blessed we are to work with them every day, nurturing their academic, spiritual and physical development.

We want to share with you the news that at long last Auroville has an easier way to receive donations*. This can be done electronically from abroad via HDFC bank. Here is the link: <http://www.auroville.com/donations/>

As you know, Aikiyam School greatly depends on your donations. If you are in a position to extend some financial support, you can now take advantage of this easy way to do so. Please make sure you select Aikiyam School as the beneficiary, of the options given, in the project area of the online form.

Thank you for your continuing support which means so much to us all. With love from all of us at Aikiyam School

TIP: your bank might have a restriction, to protect from fraudulent use of your credit card. It may be necessary to call your bank and request a restriction be lifted so that the donation can be made in the Indian rupee.*
